

Mobile Apps

SDC Free Product Line App

Bring the full capability of SDC's website to your Apple or Android mobile device so you can find what you need any time. Locate product info quickly and easily; view videos of products and installations; download and share product PDF files and much more.

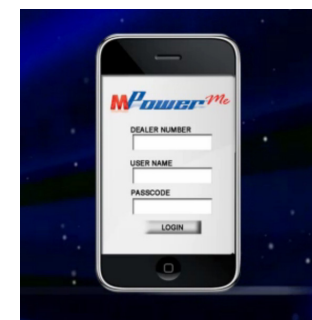

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/10716130

Theia's Image Resolution/Lens Calculator App

Theia has launched new iPad and Android Tablet versions of its award winning Image Resolution Simulator and Lens Calculator App. Users can input the camera angle and it provides the pixel density at three points in the image. The new version also enables users to introduce jpeg noise to more accurately reflect image quality.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/10747077

COPS MPower Mobile Edition

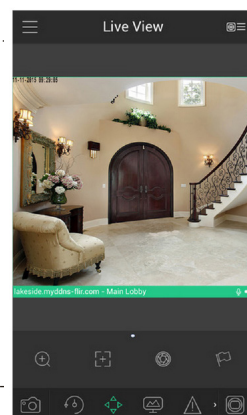

COPS Monitoring has enhanced its MPower ME mobile edition by introducing "Grouped Access," which allows alarm dealers to view and manage multiple accounts from their smartphones at once. Dealers can place up to five accounts on test at the same time, and the app is branded with the dealer's logo, for a unique, custom look.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/11248355

FLIR Cloud

FLIR Cloud from FLIR Systems is an easy-to-use cloud-enabled service platform that offers instant remote access to FLIR security products using a smartphone/tablet (iOS/Android), PC or Mac. Dealers who upgrade customers to premium FLIR Cloud services will accumulate Recurring Monthly Revenue (RMR) as commission for cloud services purchased by their customers.

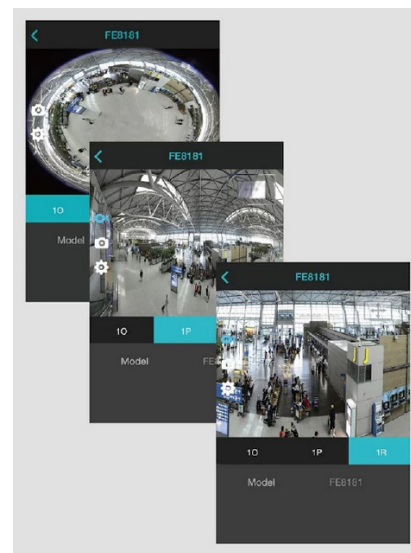

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046752

Yale Digital Keys App

The Yale Digital Keys app for NFC-equipped Android mobile devices enables homeowners to unlock doors, send keys to others, control when others have access, get a message when someone enters, and revoke a digital key at any time. Homeowners can also unlock the deadbolt using its capacitive touchscreen and a four-to-eight-digit code.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12032037

Vivotek's iViewer app

Vivotek's re-designed and iOS 8 or Android 4.0-compatible iViewer app enables users to monitor locations remotely by providing access to surveillance camera video directly from their iOS or Android handheld device. It enables users to stream live video from hundreds of cameras, which can be accessed by Vivotek's professional central management software, VAST.

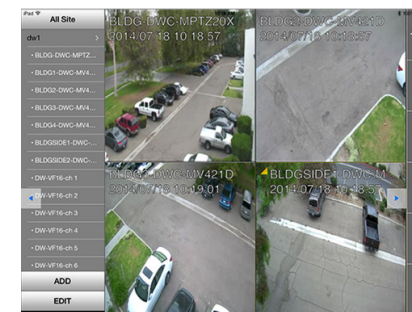

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/10719656

Vicon Mobile

Vicon Mobile is a free mobile app for iPhones, iPads and Android phones and tablets that provides users of Viconet video management systems with a new way to view live and recorded video from their network. Phones can display up to four concurrent video streams; tablets can display up to nine.

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/10898742

Digital Watchdog Mobile App for iOS

The Digital Watchdog Mobile App for iOS works with the DW Spectrum product and allows users to monitor, configure and control an entire surveillance system. The App is available in LITE (no charge) and Pro versions and support features such as unlimited site management, PTZ control, image export and two-way audio.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/11705836

Axis Mobile Apps for Small Systems

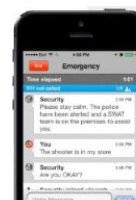

Axis mobile surveillance apps for its Camera Companion and hosted video solutions provide access to surveillance systems with Apple and Android devices. The apps allow the user to easily switch from live view to recorded videos from any location within their surveillance system. An integrated timeline notifies about triggered events.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/11702760

Guardly Enterprise E911

Guardly's Enterprise E911 for smartphones enables faster, more effective response during active shooter incidents. It uses indoor positioning and mobile apps to detect active shooters, locate people and and stream-line communication with a security operations center.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12018077

HID Mobile Access Solution

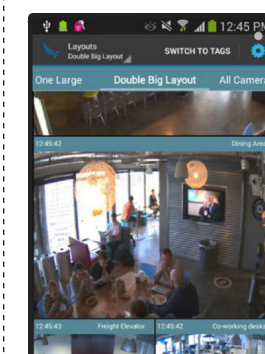

The HID Mobile Access solution from HID Global includes everything necessary for organizations to immediately begin using Bluetooth Smart and NFC-enabled smartphones and other mobile devices as an alternative to keys and smart cards. Users can unlock doors and open gates from a distance using the company's "Twist and Go" gesture technology.

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/11706496

Kaba Mobile Access Solutions

Kaba's Mobile Access Solutions enable users to access many Kaba RFID door locks with mobile devices such as smartphones while securely managing digital credentials so users' information is not shared with unauthorized parties. Kaba is expected to demonstrate secure mobile credential deployment via a cloud-based mobile access system with BLE (Bluetooth Low Energy)-enabled locks at ISC West.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/11622028

Eagle Eye Viewer Mobile App

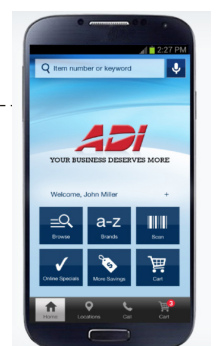

Eagle Eye Networks' Eagle Eye Viewer app for the Eagle Eye Cloud Security Camera VMS enables integrators and installers to do complete installation of the VMS using iOS and Android devices. As each device is plugged in, it can be configured immediately using the mobile app, including adding and managing users.

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046711

ADI Mobile App

ADI's mobile app provides dealers with instant access to ADI from Apple iOS and Google Android smartphones. Dealers can use it to check product pricing and availability, and place orders for pick up or delivery. Predictive search technology make it easy to access more than 100,000 products from 1,000 top brands.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046735

Mobile Apps

Honeywell LYNX Touch Multi-lingual Demo Apps

Honeywell has released multi-lingual demo apps for its LYNX Touch 5200 and 7000 home security systems. Dealers and integrators can now easily transition between English, Spanish and French languages within the same app, depending on a customer's language preference, to demonstrate system capabilities. The apps interactively simulate the systems on an iPad or iPhone.

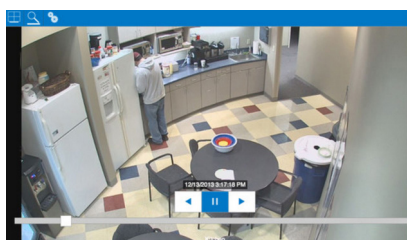

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046719

Bosch Remote Security Control App

Bosch Security Systems has enhanced its Remote Security Control app for B Series Intrusion Control Panels to enable users to view live video from Bosch IP cameras integrated with the panels. The app also enables arming and disarming of one or more B Series systems or areas, as well as controlling any connected outputs.

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046750

Exacq Mobile app Version 3.10

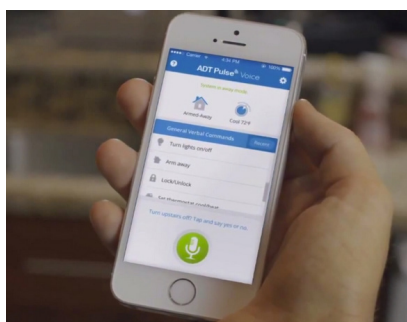

The latest Exacq Mobile app (Version 3.10) for iOS, Android and Windows Phone 8 devices uses SpeedSearch functionality, which provides significantly faster search results as video frames automatically populate on the screen for faster investigations. This is an ideal solution for searching video over low-bandwidth connections using mobile devices that rely on cellular data.

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046682

ECKey Manager App

The ECKey Manager App is now free at the Google Play store. With ECKey, your phone is your key to open doors, gates, garages or anything else it is connected to. The app lets users manage it all from any Android device, eliminating the need for expensive networks, servers and software.

More info: www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046742

ADT Pulse Voice App

The ADT Pulse Voice app combines security with the convenience of personal voice commands. Once logged in, users can arm/disarm their Pulse security panel, control their home's lighting, adjust thermostats, lock and unlock doors — verbally and virtually touchless through an iOS or Android smartphone.

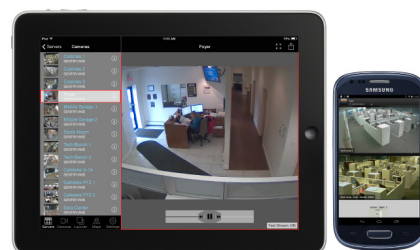

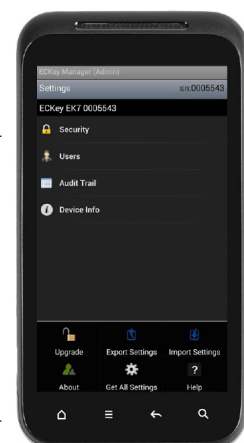

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046739

SmartAlert, SmartGuard and SmartTrack Apps

SmartTek Systems offers three apps: SmartAlert, a panic, safety, and mobile personal emergency response system (mPERS); SmartGuard, providing optional location information about family members; and SmartTrack (pictured), a fleet-tracking and mobile productivity solution for small businesses. Available on iOS or Android, alarm dealers offering them do not need to purchase any additional equipment.

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046694

Sentry VMS Mobile

IPVideo Corp's Sentry VMS Mobile is a free mobile app that provides users with VMS control from most Apple and Android devices. The app provides secure, user-authenticated access to live and recorded video from any camera on the network. Features include facility maps, layouts and camera lists, motion indicator and video snapshots.

More info:
www.SecurityInfoWatch.com/12046757